By Tube

Canada Water Tube Station is only a 5 minute walk from Early Excellence. It is on the Jubilee and London Overground Lines, and is a fully accessible station. There are connections from the Jubilee Line to the Northern, Central, Circle, Piccadilly lines and more.

Please note: The Jubilee Line towards Canada Water is referred to as either Southbound or Eastbound depending on which station you are using.

You can use an Oyster card on all of the London tube services and almost all of London's commuter train services (zones 1-9). See the Oyster website for full details.

You can use your contactless credit/debit card for Pay As You Go travel on bus, tube, tram, DLR, London Overground, TfL Rail and most National Rail services in London.

By Bus

Canada Water Bus Station is a 5 minute walk from Early Excellence and is located adjacent to the tube entrance.

See TfL website for further info.

On Foot

- 1 Take the exit signposted 'Buses' out of Canada Water Tube Station and turn left away from the Bus Station towards the main road.
- 2 Cross the road to the large pedestrian area, walk straight across towards the water and down the ramp.
- 3 Take the small wooden bridge over the water and turn immediately left. Keep walking for approximately 2 minutes.
- 4 Pass through the small tunnel and find Early Excellence on your right.
