Summer National Briefings

Be up to date

Hear national perspectives of the current issues affecting early years in schools.

Be first to hear

Discover the key findings of The Hundred Review of YR and its implications for schools, Ofsted & the DfE.

Be informed

Explore the consultation of Primary Assessment with a NAHT & Early Excellence perspective.

Our forthcoming National Briefings couldn't have come at a more crucial time for Headteachers and EYFS Leaders who are keen to be kept up to speed with all the latest developments and implications.

The briefings will be led by Early Excellence and the NAHT, who together will provide a sharply focused overview of a wide range of national developments and the current issues affecting the EYFS, KS1 and KS2 in schools. You will gain a uniquely informed perspective on the most recent and significant developments that need your attention.

Don't miss this key opportunity to be informed about:

- The DfE consultation on Primary Assessment in the EYFSP and baseline
- The Hundred Review of Reception practice, its findings and implications
- The future of Primary Accountability
