Understanding Best Practice with Early Excellence

At the heart of Early Excellence lies a deep understanding of how young children learn and the importance of establishing a well-planned, rich and stimulating environment to underpin children's personal development and academic achievement.

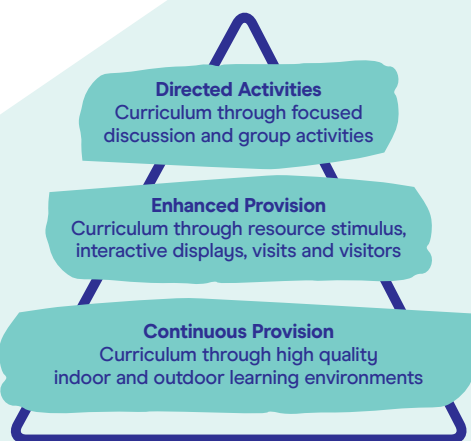

We offer much expertise to support staff development and specialise in helping practitioners to understand the link between the environment and the curriculum – and how each area of provision can be effectively resourced, organised and managed to create rich and meaningful learning opportunities.

Our Curriculum Model helps to illustrate the Early Excellence approach, and our Guides to Continuous Provision and Outdoor Provision explain in greater detail the learning potential of each area with planning included for all areas of provision.

“Before refurbishing our classrooms they offered limited opportunities for active learning, but now, with the support of Early Excellence, our nursery and reception classrooms have a consistent approach which is far more conducive to children’s learning needs.

Our team have been supported to follow children’s interests and all staff now have a clear understanding of their role and how to interact to ensure best possible progress.”

Natalie Small
EYFS Lead
Saint Mary’s Catholic Primary School,
Congleton, Cheshire

“The whole process to refurbish our learning environment worked really well from start to finish. Early Excellence embodied our philosophy and ethos and the consultant really took the time to understand our expectations and requirements.

The new layout supports staff in understanding the principles we want to embed, the children are more deeply engaged and our parents are incredibly impressed with the environment, which looks so inviting and welcoming.”

Catherine Hampson
EYFS Teacher
Stockport Grammar School

“Having grappled for some time to plan out effective provision in an unusual space, we approached Early Excellence for their help. They spent time to get to know our provision and the needs of our children and created a plan to promote more effective learning.

What is special about Early Excellence is the continual support and guidance they offer, and as part of our package of support we accessed training to give staff a deeper understanding of best practice.”

What Schools Say

There are so many reasons why schools choose to use EExAT, our unique, child centred assessment system to support their development of best practice, and here are just a few for you to explore.

“I know that with EExAT we are making more accurate assessments using the 6 monthly milestones and exemplification materials. It’s much easier and more secure than with Development Matters. The approach helps us to think through each child’s next steps for learning and leads to more informed discussions between home and school. It reflects good Early Years pedagogy in an assessment and tracking system!”

Amelia de Souza

Reception Class Teacher,
St Mary’s CE Primary School

“We find the Early Excellence assessment system really simple to use and like being able report at the end of each assessment window. I am not a data cruncher, but I find all of the different reports really useful. They have helped me to be more confident in analysing data and reporting to SLT, who understand EYFS more as a result.”

Angela Thorogood

EYFS Phase Leader,
St Mary’s Catholic Primary School

“EExAT provides us with a child centred, holistic approach to assessment with beautifully presented Learning Journals to share with parents. Everything is in one place and links purposefully, meaning that staff really enjoy using the system. SLT are able to see how we use EExAT to evaluate our provision, structure our activities and set individual targets for children. EExAT is a helpful and supportive tool that impacts learning, teaching and assessment.”

Katie Pentith

EYFS Leader,
Firs Primary School
