New to Teaching in the EYFS

Get Off to a Flying Start with an Early Excellence Specialist Course

Become a Specialist EYFS Teacher

Getting Off to a Flying Start is a three day programme designed to ensure that staff in their first year of teaching in the EYFS, whether an NQT or an experienced teacher – gain the support, knowledge and skills needed to secure effective learning and teaching 3-5yrs.

The programme explores the statutory framework and unpicks, in three core modules, the key features that underpin best practice including how to manage the learning environment, how to plan for adult-led and child-initiated learning – as well as how to plan a balanced curriculum whilst maintaining a strong focus on reading, writing and maths.

“The programme has given me much more confidence! I now understand how important the role of play is for children in EYFS. I am excited and inspired to explore all the ways I can encourage their learning in my indoor and outdoor spaces.”

Lonae Sholade
EYFS Practitioner
St John Fisher Catholic Primary School
London Borough of Bexley

“What a great course. I feel a lot more confident to put into practice everything that I’ve learned and so well supported! I understand the EYFS more fully, especially the assessment guidelines and feel a lot happier sorting out my environment.”
